Nonetheless, the question of whether the craft beer revolution is threatened by consolidation of major companies is worth asking. AB InBev, MillerCoors and others have been steadily cracking into the craft beer market in more ways than one. First, they produce so-called "crafty" beers — brands that were invented and branded by marketing execs at companies like AB InBev specifically to appeal to craft beer consumers. "Crafty" beers include Blue Moon, Shock Top, Magic Hat, and ...
