Take This Man A Memoir

Take This Man is a very addictive memoir that explores decades of Skyhorse's search for the truth, and search for his biological father. Also, I think this memoir is a testament to Skyhorse's resiliency, and his uncommon ability to overcome extreme childhood trauma.

"Take This Man is as astonishing a memoir as I've ever read. Brando Skyhorse's beautifully-told tale of his truly bizarre childhood and his search for a father moved me in a way that few books have. I will never forget Skyhorse's charismatic mother and grandmother, nor the tortured triangle the three of them formed.

Take This Man: A Memoir - Brando Skyhorse

Take This Man is the story of Brando Skyhorse, his mother and grandmother who raised him, and his five failed fathers. It sounds like it could be a very depressing story, but Skyhorse has a wry sense of humor about his life, and he can't argue with his mother's motto, "At least it's never boring."
